Wedding Bells.

HUIATT-RICKETTS.

Rev. Wm. C. Millikan performed the ceremony uniting in the bond of holy wedlock, Miss Nettie Huiatt, of Oregon, Mo., and Wm. G. Ricketts, of Florence, Colorado, Sunday evening, at 6 November 15, 1908, at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. W. A. Sharp, on West Main Street, Florence, Colorado.

The bride was lovely, gowned in a handsome silk, the groom in the conventional black. Dinner was served just before the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Ricketts went to their home in the Ricketts' block.

The wedding was strictly a quiet home affair, only a few intimate friends being present.

Miss Huiatt visited here during the past summer and the two became acquainted which ripened into the stronger attachment.

The groom has been identified with the business interests of our city almost since its beginning. After twice outgrowing his storeroom facilities on Front street, he built his present large block, fitting it out for his new and second-hand business in which he has of late been associated with J. P. Clausen.

Missouri Game Law.

At the request of several of our readers THE SENTINEL prints below the season for killing game birds in this state:

"No person or persons shall injure, kill or destroy, by any means whatever, the following named game birds, except between the following named dates: Wild turkey, from January 1st to February 1st and from December 1st to December 31st of each year; quail, (bobwhite, partridge) from November 1st to December 31st of each year; the pinnated grouse (prairie chick-a) shall not be killed prior to 1910, after that year the open season shall be from November 15th to December 15th of each year; ducks and geese, January 1st to April 30th, and September 15th to December 15th of each year; snipe, January 1st to April 30th, and September 15th to December 31st of each year; plover, woodcock, dove, August 1st to December 31st of each year. Any one who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $50 for each offense, and an additional fine of five dollars for each bird injured or killed."

The open season for the killing of deer is during the months of November and December.

-W. R. Crane and M. Hubbard, of Forest City, were Oregon visitors, Monday of this week.

-Hi Hershberger, he of Eskridge, Kansas, but who in the years gone by used to be one of us, and none ever better lived among us, is "whooping it up" in the interest of his patrons and sends out a most unique folder, giving prices on his extensive and varied line of merchandise. He's a hustler still, and we guess he'll keep on hustling after he "crosses over"-he can't help it. He's Kansasized.

Oakland.

-Joe Mitchell shipped a car load of hogs to St. Joseph, Monday.
-Everybody is taking advantage of the pretty weather in the corn shucking deal.
-Master Burnard Mitchell visited over Sunday with his aunt, Mrs. Will Hill, of Fort-tessie.
-Everybody attend the Good Time given the Oakland school the 4 of December, Friday night.
-Mrs. Simpson's beautiful country home is near its completion. It certainly adds beauty to our neighborhood.
-Three months of school closed today at Oakland. The pupils thinking they have broken the record, as there has been only one tardy mark on record. Parents certainly deserve praise for this effort.
-Clarence Randall, well known among our young people, was taken suddenly ill in Craig, last Sunday, and it was thought for a while was beyond medical aid. He is improving and will be brought home this coming Wednesday, if improvement still continues. His parents were summoned immediately.
-The Oakland school is making great preparations to entertain the young people of the surrounding districts. On December 4th they will serve ice cream, oysters and boxes will also be sold. There will a pretty box of bon-bons given to the best looking girl. Now boys, just bring her along and maybe she will divide bon-bons. Proceeds go to library.
